Miracles do occur. Sometimes we do not recognize them. However, we are enchanted and mystified with testimonies of dramatic miracles when we learn they have occurred. This retreat begins by defining what a miracle is in the life of faith. We will then explore the reality of the miracles of Jesus as told in Scripture. We will reflect on present day miracles, those both recognized and unrecognized. Finally, we will ask what kind of miracles are needed for the development of our own spirit of belief in the dynamic work of God in our individual lives.
