ANNUAL SUMMIT 2020
April 26-29, 2020
Jesuit Retreat Center
Parma, Ohio
(13 minutes from Cleveland airport)
ENGAGE WITH COLLEAGUES IN INTENTIONAL DIALOGUE ABOUT SUCH WORTHY QUESTIONS AS:

- What are qualities of pastoral leadership most suited to the “outward-facing Church” we are called to become?
- How do pastoral planners nurture this style of pastoral leadership in a culture of missionary co-responsibility?
- What is the hoped-for impact of a parish on the member/the community/the world? How do we plan for that impact? What treasured ideas have to be relinquished to move forward?
- Where are there examples of truly effective pastoral leadership, co-responsibility and parish vibrancy? What can be learned from these?
- What will the Catholic Church look and act like as we become fluent in the practice of this kind of pastoral leadership?

Jack Jezreel, a popular national speaker and teacher, received a Master of Divinity degree from the University of Notre Dame. He is the originator of the JustFaith program, and now serves as Senior Advisor for JustFaith Ministries. His newest book is titled A New Way to Be Church: Parish Renewal from the Outside In.

Marti Jewell, D.Min., Associate Professor Emerita of the Neuhoff School of Ministry at the University of Dallas, served as the Director of the Emerging Models of Pastoral Leadership Project. Her books include Navigating Pastoral Transitions: A Parish Leaders’ Guide, and she has received multiple awards for her research, including the Lumen Gentium Award from CPPCD in 2019.

Mark Mogilka, Senior Consultant for Meitler, church planning and management consulting firm located in Milwaukee, after serving for 42 years in diocesan ministries. In 2007 Mark received the Yves Congar award from CPPCD and co-authored the book entitled Pastoring Multiple Parishes.

Chris Lowney, is chair of one of America’s largest hospital systems, Catholic Health Initiatives. A one-time Jesuit seminarian and former managing director of JP Morgan, he is author of several books including Pope Francis: Why He Leads the Way He Leads and Heroic Leadership: Best Practices from a 450-Year Old Company That Changed the World.
How do we become increasingly relevant as a Church to the real issues in people’s lives?

How is God calling us to more deeply engage our people through planning, consultation, and leadership development?

What are the principles and best practices to guide our work?

Are you asking the same questions? Looking for answers and support?

We invite you to join the community of leaders from dioceses, parishes, and other Catholic settings.

Become a member of CPPCD.
