Sacraments and the Social Mission of the Church

Priests, Deacons, Lay Ecclesial Ministers, and members of the Social Justice Commission of every parish is invited to this afternoon or evening session. As we gear up for the political election season and all that will entail, lets look at who we are as a Sacramental people and our Social conscience in light of the teachings of the Church.

Tuesday, April 21, 2020
1:30 — 3:30pm  Zoom Meeting
Once you register, we will send you the Zoom Link

Diane Zbasnik is the Director of the Diocesan Social Action Office of Diocese of Cleveland. She has served with parish social ministries, participating in a citywide initiative to address racism and infant mortality and was part of the committee to found the Akron Summit Community Reinvestment Coalition. Managing the five social action offices of the Diocese, she is also working with the parishes as well as commissions throughout Ohio. Diane has a Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry and a Bachelor of Arts in Theology from the University of Portland. She has worked in the church in a variety of positions over the past 18 years including campus ministry, adult formation, RCIA and adult Confirmation. She spent 3 years in China with her husband’s job and spent time travelling around Asia, and learning different cultures.

Sacraments and the Social Mission of the Church

Name:________________________________________________Parish_____________________________________________
Address:______________________________________________ City __________________________ Zip: ______________
Email:________________________________________________________  Phone: ___________________________________

Cost: There is no cost to attend.
Registration Deadline: April 20, 2020

Register on the Office of Ongoing Formation for Clergy Page of the Diocesan website
Call: 440-943-7474 or email jmuscatello@dioceseofcleveland.org.

After you register, a ZOOM Link will be sent to your email so you can join the meeting from the comfort of your home.

Sponsored by: Diocese of Cleveland Offices of Ongoing Formation for Clergy, Catholic Social Action, Lay Ecclesial Ministry and Diaconate Formation