“At the start of this process it is important to lay out a comprehensive view of stewardship—a vision of a sharing, generous, accountable way of life rooted in Christian discipleship—which people can take to heart and apply to the circumstances of their lives.”

Stewardship Roadmap

The Stewardship Manual provides a roadmap to implementing and sustaining a successful Stewardship process in a parish. The roadmap is divided into 6 sections:

1. Developing a Stewardship Committee
2. Assessing Ministries and Creating a Future Vision
3. Educating and Forming the Parish on Stewardship
4. Conducting the Ministry Fair

5. Committing Time, Talent, and Treasure
6. Sustaining Stewardship

The Manual contains 4 additional sections containing materials for:

- Appendix A – Discernment of Gifts
- Appendix B – Children’s Stewardship
- Appendix C – A Steward’s Prayer and Reflection Journal
- Appendix D – Sunday Homilies – Forming Communities in the Spirit of Stewardship

Each section provides an overview, suggested steps for implementation, lessons learned, tools, sample materials, and external resources that can be used to initiate and sustain Stewardship in a parish. This section (highlighted in gray above) addresses Assessing Ministries and Creating Future Vision.

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision Overview

Ministry Assessment is a tool to help evaluate parish life. It will be a valuable resource to:

- Discover the gifts and talents of parishioners
- Assess ministries; those needed and those that may no longer be needed
- Define plans for the future based on parishioners' needs and interests
- Empower the community in realizing the Stewardship efforts that are already occurring and how they can grow
- Provide opportunities to promote and educate Stewardship as a way of life.

Examining the Needs of the Parish

This section of the Stewardship Manual will provide guidance for the journey (see Examples and Templates in the back of this section) to help the Stewardship Committee of the parish determine:

- What are the needs of the parish today?
- How are these needs being fulfilled?
- How is the parish changing?
- How can we best support the changes?

The data collected during the assessment can be used to establish:

- Ministry that is being done well
- Ministry that may be improved
- Ministries that no longer are filling a need

The results of the assessment of ministries generate valuable information about how the parish is now and how parishioners see it in the future. This can be captured by first organizing the responses using a tool such as a Diagram of Ministries, as shown in Example 2.1, pages 10-11.

If the Stewardship Committee receives feedback on the need for new ministries, it is critical that the initiator understand the importance of forming the ministry team and the required budget. To help with this education an example of a process for proposing new ministries is provided along with a New Ministry Assessment Sheet. See Examples 2.5 and 2.6 pages 17-19.

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision

Building for the Future

After the ministry assessments are completed, the parish is in a good position to begin some visioning work. The pastor, ministry leaders, and parishioners can begin to envision the parish in three to five years, in light of assessment results. The end of this section will give specific tools and examples to help with visioning.

After the Stewardship Committee organizes the results, the next step in sharing this information can be in the form of a Ministry Catalog. An example can be found on the Diocese of Cleveland Stewardship web page. The catalog can provide a summary of the current status of the ministries and what is needed to move toward the parish vision. The first time a catalog is created it can include the Parish's vision for the next year. This can then be used as a basis for further visioning.

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision

Getting Started

Strengthening the Ministry of the Parish

To establish the needs of the parish so that good Stewardship may be best applied, the Stewardship Committee should first spend some time in discussion about the life of the parish. This discussion may be assisted through, or with the use of, information gathered in the Vibrant Parish Life process. The “Composite Summary Report” first completed by each parish in 2003, and updated in 2007, can be given to each committee member. With this information, the group can answer the following questions.

- What are our current needs and are we addressing them?
- Is our community changing?
- How are we changing?
- How shall we meet needs in the future?

Once this discussion has taken place and the Stewardship Committee has deepened their awareness of the needs of the parish, a formal assessment process may begin.

Formal Assessment

The Ministry Assessment Process is best done through interaction between the Stewardship Committee team members and parish ministry leaders. A Ministry Assessment Form can be used for this purpose such as the one shown in Example 2.4, pages 14-16. This assessment form should be reviewed and revised as necessary to fit the specific circumstance of the parish.

In preparation of the assessment, take the following steps:

1. List the number of ministries currently being undertaken by the parish. (See Diagram of Ministries, Example 2.1, pages 10-11 for a suggested format.) Be generous with the definition of ministry. The smallest ministry can have the greatest impact. All of God’s work has value.
2. Gather pertinent information about the ministry leaders. (See the Leader Contact List, Example 2.2, page 12 for a suggested format.)
3. Plan how many ministry leaders each Stewardship Committee member will “interview”.
4. Send a copy of the assessment form to the leader with a letter explaining what information will be gathered, how it will be gathered, and why it is important. This letter may be from the pastor, such as in Example 2.3, page 13.
5. What is the time allowed to complete these interviews? Don’t rush but don’t let it drag on either. A month is suggested as adequate time if the team is focused.
6. How shall the assessments be done? Listed in order of effectiveness:

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision

- a. In person – Offer to meet for coffee or at the church or somewhere relaxed and comfortable. This forges relationships that make the whole process more visible and trusted.
 - b. By phone – Only if necessary and after the leader has seen and discussed the questionnaire with team members.
 - c. Through email – This works, but it is impersonal.
 - d. By mail

Enhancing Parish Ministry

After the Stewardship Committee reviews the information gathered during the assessment process, some analysis is necessary to answer the following questions:

- What does the parish do well? (assessment of current ministries)
- What shall the parish do more of? (based on data collected)
- What should the parish do less of? (based on feedback)

A sample form is provided to help the Stewardship committee organize the information from the assessment. See the Assessment Information Analysis Tool, on the Diocese of Cleveland Stewardship web page.

If the Stewardship committee receives feedback on the need for new ministries, it is critical that the initiator understand the importance of forming the ministry team and the budget required. To help with this education, an example of a process for proposing new ministries is provided along with a New Ministry Assessment Sheet, Examples 2.5 and 2.6, pages 17-19.

Once the analysis is completed, the information should be assembled into a parish Ministry Catalog, similar to the examples shown on the Diocese of Cleveland Stewardship web page. This Ministry Catalog should then be mailed to all parishioners and included in a welcome packet given to all newly registered parishioners. Section 5 of this manual, Stewardship Commitment Process, suggests a process for this distribution.

Lessons Learned (Tips and Tricks)

The first step in understanding current ministry efforts of the parish is to assess them. Here are some important considerations on how to proceed with the assessment process. They are based on the experience of parishes that have already embarked on this journey.

- Listen - God gave us two ears and one mouth. Be prepared to LISTEN to the leaders twice as much as you speak; they will appreciate the opportunity to talk about their ministry. They may not know the exact answers to some questions, but that is important information too. Accurately record their input.
- Document – Accurately record their input
- Be Inclusive - When interviewing ministry leaders, it is helpful to interview the parish staff as well. Oftentimes the staff is performing duties or tasks integral to various ministries without being directly a part of any particular ministry. As you go through the process you may discover tasks that could perhaps be done by volunteers to somewhat relieve the staff and pastor.
- Be open to the potential for combining or even eliminating ministries to be more effective in providing the needs of the parish and community.
- Think “outside the box” to identify what ministries may be missing.
- Discuss how to select, train and mentor future ministry leaders.
- Be sure that ministry leaders have access to support from other groups such as the Parish Council.

Community Life – Parishioner sponsored involvement in celebrating faith-filled activities that support the tenets of the Catholic Faith.

Outreach for the Greater Church – Ministries that arise out of taking action to fulfill the mission of our faith as laid out by the Church Leadership.

Parish Support – These ministries support and guide all of the various parish ministries and also serve to provide direct hands-on activity with respect to maintaining parish facilities and property.

Evangelization – Ministries which serve to spread the Good News of faith and parish life.

Social Functions – Activities for which the primary purpose is ministry-sponsored fund raising events or for which the primary purpose is the enjoyment of fellowship.

Please note: The diagram on the preceding page is a visual example of how to map out the ministries in the parish. It is intended as a tool for the Stewardship Committee to modify as needed. Headings, placement, and specific definitions of ministries may vary according to the needs and activities of the parish.

Letter of Introduction from the Pastor on the Ministry Assessment

Parish Letterhead

Dear

Stewardship is built on four key principles: to receive God's gifts gratefully, to cultivate God's gifts responsibly, to share God's gifts lovingly and to return God's gifts with increase. This is an exciting and ambitious undertaking that we hope will encourage each of us as Catholic Christians to experience stewardship as a way of life.

This letter is written to introduce you to the work of the Parish Stewardship Committee, to describe the highlights of the process we will be following and, finally and most importantly, to engage your support as a leader in our parish as we respond to the Lord's invitation to follow Him on the path of Christian stewardship. You have been selected to receive this invitation to participate in advance of the majority of our parishioners because of your leadership qualities and the strong dedication you have to our parish.

Our objective is focused on one thing: a prayerful commitment to stewardship at an individual level. This means that parishioners will be asked to give of their time, talent and resources in ways that are unfamiliar to some. We hope positive change inspired by our Lord will be the result.

You will be hearing a lot more about these tasks and activities and the support you can provide to them. I'd like to first introduce you to the "Ministry Assessment and Future Vision" aspect of our stewardship process. This process will outline in detail the parish vision and the opportunities available to _____ Parishioners to broaden and deepen our array of ministries.

Over the next couple of weeks, members of the Stewardship Committee will be contacting a number of our parish leaders called to lead specific ministries to discuss perceptions of their ministry, the support it has in both human and financial terms, and its greatest opportunities for impact and changes that should be considered, including the addition of new ministries and the combination or consolidation of existing ministries for greater effectiveness. Attached in this mailing for those parish leaders that are chairpersons of a ministry is a copy of the interview guide that will be used so that you can organize your thoughts. A file of this can be emailed to those with computers when they are called for an interview date if they wish to draft the information prior to the interview.

Our timetable is aggressive yet achievable. Key milestones include:

- Completion of the assessment of ministries
- Ministry Fair and Lay Witnesses
- Pentecost – the time of our stewardship commitment

To borrow from Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, A Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, I pray that you will find it in your heart to respond to the challenge of stewardship and that you will help renew our commitment as the Lord's disciples and as stewards of his bountiful gifts.

Yours in Christ,

Ministry Assessment and Future Vision

Stewardship Logo

of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland

Our logo is designed to encompass elements of the Catholic Christian's Stewardship journey. The three colored spheres signify the most common themes of Stewardship practice – time, talent, and treasure. The loop encircling the top of the cross represents the Church, where we are enabled and encouraged to live out our gifts in the hope of building God's Kingdom on earth. This hope is rooted in the cross, the most basic tenet of our faith. In the death and resurrection of Jesus we are offered salvation and our place in the Kingdom. Living a life of Stewardship is living fully in the knowledge that God will supply all our needs through the gift we are to each other. The beautiful font, colors, and general design combine contemporary and traditional styles which reinforce the awareness that Stewardship is an age-old but ongoing process within our Catholic lives.
