

Documents Needed With Your Petition

Civil Documents

All civil documents must be certified copies. A certified copy is made by the courthouse and will be officially stamped or have a raised seal. These documents will be returned to you at the conclusion of the case, but be advised that in rare instances documents have been lost or damaged in the mail.

Marriage records are obtained from the courthouse of the county from which you received your marriage license. Divorce records are obtained from the county in which the divorce was filed.

Marriage License Application

The marriage license application indicates the number of marriages and divorces of both parties at the time that they applied for marriage. It is useful to the Tribunal in verifying that all previous marriages have been disclosed in the petition.

Certificate of Marriage

The certificate of marriage indicates the place where the marriage occurred, the date of the marriage, and the officiant. It confirms for the Tribunal the basic facts of the wedding.

Divorce Decree (Judgment Entry)

Only the complete judgment entry of the divorce decree is needed, not the following details such as division of property. Please include all revised judgments if any have been made since the original decree. This proves to the Tribunal that the divorce has been finalized, as the Tribunal will not accept a petition unless there is no possibility of the marriage being reconciled.

Catholic Church Documents

In addition to the civil documents, there are Church documents that need to be submitted with your petition, such as baptismal records and marriage certificates. Your procurator can assist you in obtaining the Catholic records. If you are a baptized non-Catholic, we will need you to obtain any proof of baptism, such as an original certificate already in your possession or a recent certificate or letter from the church that baptized you.

Baptismal Certificates (Catholic Church)

If you are a baptized Catholic, you must obtain a current baptismal record. This is obtained by calling, or writing to the Catholic church in which you were baptized. You will request a Baptismal certificate “with notations.” This must be a current certificate with ink stamp and/or seal and issued within the last six months.

Marriage Certificates (Catholic Church)

Call the Catholic Church in which the ceremony occurred and request a marriage certificate. This is not the copy provided at the time of the marriage. This must be a current certificate issued by the church including its ink stamp and/or seal proving the document is an original not a copy.

Note for church records: If the parish has been closed or merged, the records will either be maintained at the remaining parish, a near-by parish, or the diocesan archives. If you are not able to determine where the records are being kept, call the Diocesan Archives at 216-696-6525/800-869-6525, ext. 3450.
