From the Pastor

October 2017

Dear Parishioners,

St. Paul writes to the Philippians: Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice...the Lord is near. In the midst of a broken and hurting world, we can rejoice because the Lord is indeed near to us and his generosity is overwhelming. As I write to you, to present the Annual Report for, St. Jude Parish for this past 2016-17 Fiscal Year, I once again marvel at the generosity of God and the blessings he has bestowed upon our parish.

God's love and grace have been at work in you and in your willingness to share your talents and your resources to build up the Body of Christ at St. Jude. The parish continues to grow in numbers and diversity. We are blessed to have a parish full of many different cultures and languages who share unity in our Catholic Faith. This brings great richness to our celebrations of the Sunday Mass, our Faith Formation programs and our outreach efforts.

Over this past year we have been able to undertake a number of new initiatives in addition to all the regular things we do as a parish. We hosted Camp Unity for four months and successfully began the Safe Parking Program to help bring stability to those who are homeless. This summer, thanks to the generosity of so many, and the hard work of our councils and many others, we were able to complete the beautiful renovation of our Parish Hall Kitchen which is at the heart of so much we do here at St. Jude. You probably noticed too, the gorgeous new St. Jude window installed this spring which reminds us of our heavenly patron. We were also able, over this past year, to make a number of site improvements: leveling concrete pathways, new stairs to Lovett Hall, new railings and improved building signage for the campus.

Things like this can only happen when people like you live out your faith and put it into practice by stepping forward to build up our parish with your time, talent and financial resources. So, I want to thank you for being so supportive of our parish and being such great witnesses to our faith. I feel very blessed to serve as pastor of such a wonderful parish. This annual report reflects this past fiscal year's financial results for our parish and the breadth of our programs, but it cannot begin to reveal what happens in our hearts when we turn our lives over to God. It can only describe a fraction of the wonderful work God does through you at St. Jude. Thank you and may God continue to bless you for your generosity and love.

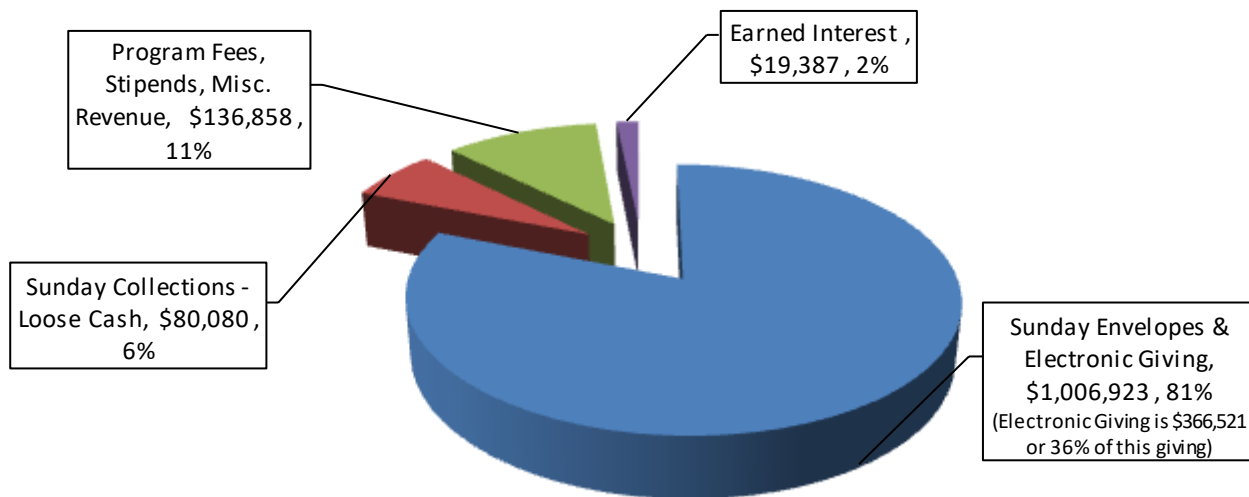

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Johnson
