TWELVE SPIRITUAL TYPES OF YOUNG ADULTS

Framework taken from "MILLENNIALS AND MINISTRY ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES" by MICHAEL GALLIGAN-STIERLE, 2009

CHURCH SACRAMENTALS

love the mass and bring a deep reverence to Christ's presence in the Eucharist.

CHURCH EVANGELICALS

believe that a personal relationship with Christ and first-hand knowledge of Scripture is essential.

CHURCH DEVOTIONALS

are active in faith primarily through silent, personal prayer and often have a devotion to Our Lady.

CHURCH APOLOGISTS

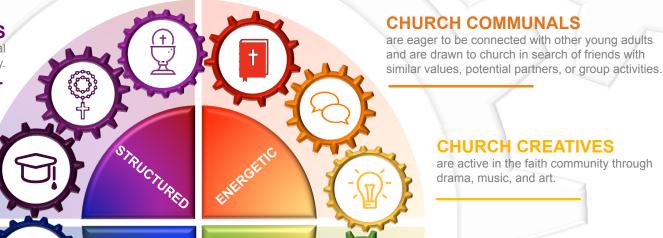

seek an intellectual understanding of the Catholic faith and enjoy studying the tenets and history of Catholicism.

THE CHURCH IN SERVICE

are young adults who directly serve those in need and are strong witnesses of Catholic social teaching.

CHURCH PROPHETICS

strive to reform unjust systems affecting the poor and disadvantaged and are passionate about their cause.

THE CHURCH ON SUNDAY is committed to attending liturgy on Sunday

CHURCH CULTURALS

belong to families that identify as Catholic and celebrate major Catholic holidays but rarely attend mass or other church activities.

CHURCH CREATIVES

drama, music, and art.

are active in the faith community through

but do not participate in other church activities.

THE CHURCH ALL-INCLUSIVE

see religion as a confining category for one's spiritual life, are welcoming of newcomers, and seek to expand the worldview of the church membership.

THE CHURCH ECLIPSED

are young adults who were baptized but are now distant from Catholicism.
